MEDIA ACCREDITATION PROCEDURE

The EAES Press Office requires that all applicants for media accreditation be professional journalists formally registered with a media organization in Europe or Asia. The office reserves the right to request additional documentation to verify applicants' status. Each application is evaluated individually, and the decisions of the EAES Press Office are final. No media badge will be issued to journalists whose applications do not conform to the established procedure.

APPLYING FOR MEDIA ACCREDITATION

Correspondents wishing to cover EAES activities on a temporary or full-time basis must be accredited by the Press Office. The accreditation procedures are based on those established by the United Nations.

Each journalist must submit an individual application and is requested to complete the Accreditation Form in its entirety. The form must be returned with all the following documents:

A letter of assignment on the official letterhead of a media organization signed by the Editor-in-Chief (or the News Editor for radio/TV).

A photocopy of a press card valid for at least six months from the date of the event.

A copy of your passport or national ID.

Copies or links to two articles/reports published within the last 6 months, for which the journalist is credited, may also be requested.

Each accompanying staff member (sound engineers, cameramen, support staff, etc.) must also complete a separate Accreditation Form and return it with:

A letter of assignment signed by the Editor-in-Chief (or News Editor for radio/TV)

A copy of their passport or national ID.

ELIGIBILITY FOR MEDIA ACCREDITATION

Media accreditation may be granted only to the editorial staff of publications/news wire services, press photographers, and TV/radio crews representing recognized media organizations, that is:

Newspapers/magazines: Available to the general public, published at least 6 times a year by an organization whose principal business activity is publishing.

Online publications: Generating a substantial amount of original news content and which belongs to a registered media company with a verifiable non-web address plus telephone number.

News wire services: Providing news coverage to subscribers, including newspapers, periodicals, and/or televisions.

Broadcast: Broadcasting news and information programs to the general public either through satellite or terrestrial means.
